Writ of Release and Return of Private Property

1. Comes now the court on its own motion to consider the unlawful detention of Andrew William Pankotai in the Valencia County Detention Center.
2. Claimant Pankotai has been held unlawful detention since January 30th, 2017.
3. Claimant Pankotai was arrested prior to the defendants having a warrant in hand and said warrant produce by defendants was not signed in wet ink.
4. The warrant that was eventually shown to Claimant Pankotai is from Montour County, Pennsylvania according to the NCIC.
5. According to the Pennsylvania office of extradition, namely Dorothy Martin and an attorney in said office, Amy Yague Coffey, only the prosecuting attorney from one of the Pennsylvania counties prosecuting Claimant Pankotai may file an application for extradition.

6. Additionally, the case in the inferior court has been dismiss against Claimant Dylan Stamper.

7. IT IS HEREBY THE ORDER OF THIS COURT that claimant Andrew William Pankotai be released from the Valencia County Detention Center immediately and all actions against claimants are to cease until such time as the issues before this court are settled.

8. IT IS FURTHER THE ORDER FO THIS COURT that all private property be returned to claimants named herein as it is only being held under the guise of evidence for a crime that does not exist.

9. IT IS ADDITIONALLY THE ORDER OF THIS COURT that all parties to the action are hereby invited to submit to this court just cause within 20 days why this order is invalid. However, the 20 day period provided for the submission of the evidence of just cause does not allow for the further detention of Claimant Pankotai.
